THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

Ever hear of a Passion Bird?
MRS. GORDON SENNETT, 88
Elmwood drive, had one. Her friends gave it to her.

In fact, she was so proud of it
that she phoned the pet shop in Westlake to secure a nice cage for the bird to protect its feathered finery.

So YVONNE BUNTIN, proprietor, rushed to Mrs. Sennett's Tuesday evening, cage in hand.

"Fine looking banty black chicken you've got there," the pet
shop lady said.

"What?" the lady said. "That's a genuine Passion Bird. My friends told me it was."

On being reassured the bird belonged to that great clan of egg-laying domestic fowl, the lady was finally convinced.

Not the least pleased by this bit of ornithological information, she ushered out the pet shop proprietor and the "Passion Bird."

Having realized the bird was a chicken, she said, "It's unsanitary. Get it out of here," Mrs.
Buntin got the bird.

... End of foul play.

Residents on Woodrow street between Vista Grande and Parkway
found a good way to raise money
for worthy purposes without beating the pavement.

They held a get-together at the
ELMO WHITMAN residence, 111
Woodrow, Saturday, with about 59 gregarious neighbors showing up.

Potluck dinner was held, with each guest paying 50 cents admission.

Proceeds from this good neighbor policy will go to the purchase
needed equipment for Girl Scouts and Brownies.

A couple of 16-year-old Jeff High lasses exited out of singleness via the elopement route this
week.

The girls, cousins, are reported in Carson City, Nev.

Stolen Stuff: BENNY BUFANO,
artist-sculptor character who will be a judge in the DC-Colma Lions Youth Art Show this weekend, is renowned not only for his ability
on stone but for his feats of thrift.
He quipped recently, "I'm not the biggest chiseler in California
... I'm the biggest gouger."

RON ANGELOT, who narrowly escaped drowning at the Jeff High pool Friday, won't have any trouble remembering the anniversary
of his trying experience.
It was his sixteenth birthday.

A recent piece by a SF metropolitan columnist expounded woes
of an independent post office here
from the standpoint of added mailing costs to local citizens.

Said he, "Once Daly City becomes 'independent' every letter that goes to San Francisco becomes 'out of town' mail," thus adding an extra penny cost to each letter when the boost on mailing goes through.

If you ask us, this is the biggest bargain since the days of the penny press.

But, for the more frugal, they may walk across the county line
into San Francisco, mail their letter with a three-cent stamp, walk back, happy with the knowledge
they have saved one cent.

druggists.

Jack, employed here for many

manage a spanking new store in

Bocci Levies Fines In Broadmoor Cases

Samuel Munday, formerly of 133
Westbrook avenue and now a resident of Cupertino, forfeited $50
bail for failing to appear in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's Municipal court yesterday (Thursday) to answer
charges of being drunk in a public place.

He was picked up by Broadmoor
police in an intoxicated condition
on Friday at the Colonial, officers
said.

Keneth Wambold, 30, of Santa Rosa, was found guilty of speeding
in other action at the muni court yesterday.

Wambold was picked up by Broadmoor officer Charley Hazen on February 19 and charged with going 55 miles an hour on Junipero
Serra boulevard, a 35-mile zone.

The motorist pleaded not guilty
but Bocci ruled against him.
He was fined $7.50 and given a five-day suspended jail sentence.

Two Receive Hurts In Auto Smash-up

Two persons suffered injuries
Tuesday when the steering wheel
of an auto apparently went out of kilter, causing the vehicle to strike a parked car.

Police said Nathaniel Thomas,
31, of San Francisco, was traveling east on School street when his steering wheel went out, causing the car to hit a vehicle parked at the side of the street.

Mary Cavenar, 40, of 139 Price
street, was seated in the parked vehicle at the time of collision.

Mrs. Cavenar, who was confined to Junipero Serra hospital, received 14 stitches for a knee laceration. She also suffered a cut forehead and cuts about the arms
and legs.

Serra hospital attendants released Thomas after treating him
for a lacerated forehead.

Thomas was cited for driving without due caution and driving
on the wrong side of the street.

Award Sewage Plant Bid for $424,676

Awarding of contract for a primary sewage treatment plant
here was awarded Monday to C.
Norman Petersen for $424,676.

The figure was nearly $115,000
below the engineer's estimate for the job, and is expected to result in a total saving of more than $150,000 to North San Mateo County Sanitation district taxpayers.

The plant will be located north of Alemany boulevard at its intersection with Lake Merced boulevard. It will serve Daly City, Broadmoor and Colma areas.

The engineer's estimate for the job was $539,000.

Breakdown of the bid showed:
Item No. 1 (the plant itself)
$349,750; Item No. 2 (storm drain)
$19,050; Item No. 3 (ocean outfall) $55,876.

Overall cost of the project was expected to hit $600,000 with legal and engineering costs. As it now stands, the board of directors will call for the sale of only $500,000

in bonds.

James Kennedy, president of the board, said this would result in a saving of $50,000 in interest
alone for the district.

When the bonds were approved
by district voters last spring, it was expected financing the project would mean an additional 13 cents per $100 valuation on the homeowners tax load. Comparatively low cost of the plant, however, should cut two or three cents
off the 13 cent figure, Kennedy
said.

Of the ten bids submitted for the job, they ranged to a high of $504,000, given by Oscar C.
Holmes.

The board is expected to approve the contract at an adjourned meeting March 22. Work will start
"shortly after that," Kennedy said.

TWO FILE FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL BOARD

Two candidates have filed for one of the three positions open
on the Jefferson Elementary School district board of trustees.

They are: Guido de Ghetaldi Jr.,
a physical education instructor at San Francisco State college, who lives at 316 Northgate avenue;
and Cecil Mitchell, of 1775 Sweet-
wood drive.

Only one incumbent, Andrew
Van Der Werff, is up for election,
but two new board positions have been created in accordance with state law requiring five-member boards. Up to now the Jefferson board has been made up of three trustees.

Deadline for filing is April 21,
with the election falling on May 21.

Neville Motors Gets Rid Of Car—Hard Way

Neville motors, 7360 Mission street, is minus one new car this
week.

Owners reported the vehicle
parked in a lot across the street
from the establishment, and it was last seen on Friday.

On Tuesday it was reported missing.

On further investigation, it was discovered that key to the vehicle,
which supposedly had been in a strong box with other new car
keys, was also missing.

An investigation is underway.

Daly City police officers Gerald Schaeffer and Phillip La Bruzzo were Monday night named as permanent members of the local po-

The civil service board of review recommended approval of the two officers, since their probatory
period of one year had been served to satisfaction.

The positions will go into effect retroactive to February 16.

Probe Long Delay On Colma School Project

CITY WELL IN; PUMPS 700 GAL.

Pumping 700 gallons a minute
during testing, Daly City's new well to serve the proposed Westlake Reservoir came in Monday.

It is estimated that the well, located near the Benjamin Franklin school, will pump better than 1000 gallons a minute when in full operation.

Engineers reported that the water "cleared up nicely" after the well was brought in.

The well will be one of two to supply the 1,300,000 gallon capacity reservoir being planned in Westlake as part of Daly City's water improvement system. Drilling of the second well should be completed "in a few weeks" Mayor
Anthony Gaggero reported.

Hart & Hynding company are the contractors who will construct the reservoir. Equipment is already moved up to the site, and work is scheduled to start in a short time. The reservoir will be built at a cost of $73,582. It will take approximately four months
to complete.

VISION TESTING PROGRAM GIVEN AT LOCAL SCHOOLS

A vision testing program is now being provided for the pupils of
the Jefferson Elementary School
district. Forty-five classrooms have been scheduled for testing by the school nurses with assistance
from the teachers.

Children whose vision does not
test normal will be recommended to their parents for a referral to a health advisor for an examination.
For children whose vision is poor
and not correctable, there are educational adjustments which can be made in the form of seating arrangements and sight-saving books. There are also sight-saving classes and schools available for pupils with the more severe loss of vision.

"Screening" Process
It is to be understood by parents,
teachers, and pupils that this testing is merely a "screening" process and while it will detect a large proportion of those pupils
who have common visual difficulties it will not detect every pupil
who has visual problems.

The school also recommends that children who show symptoms of eye trouble even though passing the test be further examined. There is also no attempt at diagnosing or defining conditions. The school's only concern is that the child performs either satisfactorily or unsatisfactorily on the test.

The Jefferson Elementary School district is aiming at this time to set up a system whereby
all of the children will receive a

High School Girl Held For Car Theft

A 15-year-old Jefferson high school girl is being held by juvenile authorities after pulling off a car heist in a manner described by police as "most professional."

The girl was picked up while standing by the vehicle Wednesday morning at 257 Hillside boulevard, after the owner of the car, Richard E. Hoffman, had reported it stolen.

Police said the girl took the car
Monday from 260 Abbot street.
They said she released the hand-brake and let the car roll out of the garage. She then started the vehicle up and drove away. She drove the car around for two days,
telling friends it belonged to her
aunt, police said.

The girl was taken to juvenile authorities Wednesday.

All's Quiet Today In Colma Politics

All is quiet politically on the Colma front as four incumbents
will run unchallenged on the ticket.
Filing ended last Thursday at noon.

Councilman Raymond Ottoboni,
and Albert Lagomarsino will be unopposed for their offices. Ottoboni will be entering his second four-year term, while Lagomarsino was appointed to fill a vacancy and has never been up for election.

E. Weisenburger, venerable city clerk who has held the post for 29 years will be alone on the ballot,
as will treasurer G. H. Parker,
who is coming up for his second term.

NO SETTLEMENT SEEN IN CEMETERY STRIKE

The cemetery workers and grave
diggers strike went into its twelfth day today, with no signs of agreement being reached between workers and the owners.

Meanwhile, bodies of deceased
persons have been put on storage
in county mortuaries at the average rate of 15 a day.

In San Francisco, 30 to 40
corpses were being either refrigerated or cremated.

Last arbitration between workers and owners was held Monday
without success.

The cemetery employees are asking $2.50 a day more wages.

EXPEDITER SURVEYS PROGRESS OF WORK

A bonding company expediter was called in this week to determine why the Colma school on Market street has been delayed more than six months in construction.

Harrison Williams, expediter for the bonding company which has guaranteed that work of the contractor will meet plans and specifications, surveyed the job this week to determine how to hasten its completion.

The building was scheduled for completion in November of 1953,
and since then has been beset by numerous delays and work is still proceeding slowly, according to H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School
district.

Contractor on the job is A. F.
Stewart Construction company,
low bidder with a price of $677,- 678. Cost is $14.01 a square foot.

Weibel said that the project
had not gone according to schedule because of "insufficient organization" on the part of the contractor.

The expediter made a thorough
survey of the work this week
and is expected to come up with measures that will speed construction. It is believed that he will call for placement of more men on the job.

As it stands now, cabinets must still go in, landscaping be done
and asphalt laid.

At present 518 students are attending school on double sessions awaiting the time when the building can accommodate full sessions.

The school is expected to house 850 children on full session when finished.

Weibel said yesterday that,
though the project is long delayed, it will soon be done according to original plans and specifications.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN RELIEVED OF POST

The city council has voted to accept the recommendation of the library commission for terminating the position of a library employee.

She is Frances Nier, who has worked in a probationary status as assistant librarian for the past 11 months. She would have become eligible for permanent employment in one month.

The library commission recommended relieving the woman from her position, saying she was not qualified.

Council Holds Over Booster Pump Bids

Bids for supplying the city with a booster pump were held up by the city council Monday for further consideration.

The following bids were received: Hatch Drilling Co., $2390; Hubbard Machinery and Equipment Co., $2503.30; Food Machinery & Chemical Corp., $3280;
Pump Repair Service Co., $3310-30.

The matter will be taken up
again at the March 22 meeting.

SAYS MEET ON TIDELANDS IS "ENCOURAGING"

Councilman Edward J. Dennis
reported today that the recent meeting of San Francisco and San Mateo boards of supervisors for the purpose of findings ways and means to develop the tidelands
near Brisbane is "certainly, encouraging."

"In as much as Daly City is primarily a residential area, any industrial development nearby
would create employment for many of our citizens," Dennis said.

"Now that Daly City is the third largest city in San Mateo county and still growing, possibly the Crocker Estate people will reconsider having their property an-nexed to Daly City for industrial sites," he continued.

At present, the Crocker Estate
divides the boundaries of Daly City and Brisbane, and has been mentioned as an ideal site for the location of industry.

Save Two Youngsters At Jefferson High Pool

Near catastrophe, like lightning, struck twice at Jefferson High school swimming pool Friday as gym instructors used quick thinking to save two youths from possible drowning.

The first incident occurred about 10 a.m. when 15-year-old Bruce Freeland, attempting to reach the side of the pool, got panicky.

Seeing the boy in apparent danger, instructor Tony Giammona dived in with his clothes on and dragged the boy to safety.

Less than an hour later students
rushed to inform Coaches Giam-

mona, Mike Orlich and Joe Mc-Grath that a swimmer was at the bottom of the pool.

Orlich sent three of the better
student swimmers after the youngster, 16-year-old Ron Angelot.
They brought him to the top, but weary from their efforts, couldn't lift his head above the water.

Giammona again dived in fully clothed and hoisted the youth out of the water.

The youngster was unconscious
and artificial respiration was applied until he was revived. Daly City firemen later responded with a resuscitator and administered oxygen.

Alert thinking on the part of the instructors was credited with saving the boy's life.

He was rushed to Junipero Serra
hospital, where he was confined
one day for rest. Later, the student said, he had suffered a "dizzy spell" while swimming and "black-ed out."

The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August R. Angelot, 269 South
Park View avenue.

Ingersoll, Whitney File For Re-Election To Jefferson High Board

Lyal Ingersoll of Daly City and Ray Whitney of Linda Mar, incumbents, have filed for re-election to the post of trustee on the board of directors of Jefferson Union High school district, it was announced this week.

The election will be held May 21. Deadline for filing for one of the two posts up for election is April 21.

Ingersoll, chairman of the board, has been a trustee for one term of three years. Whitney was appointed in January to fill the vacancy created when Thomas J. Callan of Colma was forced to resign because of conflicting jobs.

Change Date For Meet Of County School District Organization

The regular meeting of the San Mateo County School District Organization Committee, scheduled for the third Monday of each month, will not be held on March 15th, according to information received today from the office of County School Superintendent James R. Torrey.

Because the scheduled date falls on the last day to file Federal income tax returns this year, the committee decided at its February meeting to move the date ahead to Monday evening, March 22nd, for the personal and professional convenience of its members.

The postponed regular meeting on Monday, March 22nd, will be held at 8:00 p.m. in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools, 538 Jefferson Avenue, Redwood City.

Approximately 600 civil service employees are employed in administering and operating the State-owned port of San Francisco.

Punks Break Into Parked Vehicle

A gang of hoodlums, apparently the same bunch that has been terrorizing the beach area recently, Saturday night broke into a parked vehicle at Thornton beach and stole numerous auto accessories and a payroll check for $149.03.

Earl Richard Souza, 19, of Richmond, said he left his car in the parking area near Thornton to attend a beach party. About midnight a gang of youths approached the party and asked if they wished to fight.

Souza said his group declined and the youths left. Later, about 1:30 a.m. as he returned to his car he saw several of them stripping his automobile. They made their escape in a 1940 model Ford before anyone could identify them.

Souza told police that they had taken his hub caps, a spot light, cigarette lighter and the check.

vision test every year, early in the school year. In order that this can be accomplished it will be necessary for each teacher to screen-test her own class and then make referrals to the school nurse for further follow-up.

First In County

The California state law has now specified that teachers may do this after first qualifying themselves by obtaining a Vision Testing credential. This school district is the first in the county to participate in the vision program in accordance with the new state code. The code provides that teachers may test the vision of the children in their classes upon completion of a six hour course given by a school supervisor of health; usually the school nurse.

Almost 50 per cent of the teachers have now successfully completed the course which was given by Mrs. Betty Boykin, school nurse. She was assisted by Mrs. Helen Delafield, coordinator of school nursing.

The course includes (a) basic knowledge of the structure, development and function of the eye (b) basic knowledge of symptoms suggesting eye difficulty, (c) techniques and procedures in administering Schellen and Plus Sphere tests (d) practice in administering the above tests under the supervision of a qualified supervisor of health.

Two-Fold Purpose

The tests that are now being given in the classrooms have the two-fold purpose of testing the children and demonstrating the testing to the teachers who have taken the Vision Screening course. Following the demonstrations, these teachers are eligible for certification and qualified for testing next term.

younger tots, Karen Bethel, 625 Larchmont drive, was the big winner of the race as well as being the winner for the girls. Rickey Bodmer, 808 Heather road, came in second and was winner for the boys.

In a special race for members of the police department only, Chief Ray Savage came in first place and walked away with the grand prize, to wit—one cream puff! Of which part of the police department helped spread around.

The races were very successful, and there was a large turnout with a good time and plenty of fun and excitement for everyone. Movies of the event were taken by Paul and Fred Bruch, 60 Keystone way, San Francisco, and will be shown sometime in the near future.

Site-Usage Plan For Westmoor Approved

Site-usage plans for Westmoor high school were approved Monday night at a meeting between Jefferson Union High school district board of trustees and Mario J. Ciampi, architect.

Stanford Hannah, superintendent of the district, said preliminary plans would be started immediately. "We can't expect the plans to be completed and approved before the end of the year, however," he said.

The school, to cost in excess of $2,000,000, will cover an area approximately 34 acres just off Skyline boulevard.

Hannah said this week that it would be built to accommodate about 1000 students after initial construction, and would later house 1500. Construction of the school was made necessary by the rapid growth of the Westlake and Broadmoor areas.

There will be no swimming pool provided for in the first units, Hannah said. Most of the construction will be compact, so that students will be able to move to all the buildings without crossing large open spaces. The lift-slab process will be used in the building to cut expenses, Hannah said. The school will be of one-story construction.

In other business Monday night, the board called for bids for bleachers to replace the condemned wooden bleachers now being torn down; called bids for supplying tables and chairs for the new cafeteria.

Scaled bids on both projects will be opened March 27.

"Life Of The Party" Is Women Voters' Topic

"You Can Be the Life of the Party" is the subject of a course being offered by the League of Women Voters under the leadership of Mrs. Richard S. Cahn. The course began Friday at 10:30 a.m. and will continue for two more Friday mornings, (March 12, 19) in the Commissioners' Room, Main Public Library.

The series will include basic information on the operation of our two-party system, the functions of political parties, and how the individual citizen can become effective in his party.

The course is open to all interested persons.

Cabinets Made In Stock Sizes

In order to fit any kitchen, wood kitchen cabinets are manufactured in a wide variety of stock sizes, from which the exact cabinet unit for a particular space can be selected.

Offering further economy to the home-owner who must keep kitchen remodeling within a limited budget, cabinets of ponderosa pine are available as kits, with all wood accurately cut to size but not assembled, or with the wood unfinished. They are also supplied prime-coat painted, fully painted, or with a natural wood finish. A home-owner can do his own installation if he wishes.

Among the advantages of wood cabinets is that they take a virtually unlimited range of finishes, paint or enamel of any color, or varnish or shellac for natural appearance. Refinishing is always possible when a change in kitchen decoration is desired.

Wood cabinet doors do not rattle. Doors are dust-proof and cracks are tightly closed to keep cabinet interiors clean. Special features include adjustable shelves and cabinet units made particularly for fruit and vegetables, cutlery, trays, pans, and other kitchen supplies which might not fit neatly on standard shelves.

UNSCRAMBLING WITH THE "SCRAMBLE"

Though we are hesitant to offer any solution to the chaotic pedestrian-traffic problem that exists at the Mission street-San Jose avenue intersection on the top of the hill, in light of recent experiences elsewhere, the "scramble" system might be worth a try.

Last week the system was introduced in San Francisco with, we hear, pleasing results.

The "Scramble" method of manipulating great hordes of humanity and masses of machinery from the stragulating hold of an intersection is designed to make going easier for both pedestrians and motorists.

Pedestrians scurry in all directions during the "walk" signals interval. On the pedestrian "wait" signal, vehicular traffic will move.

Experts declare the system speeds up both pedestrian and vehicular traffic, without pedestrian interference.

That, we avow, would surely be a blessing at the "top of the hill."

Without jumping wholeheartedly on the "scramble" bandwagon, we would suggest that the system at least be investigated.

BENT OVER TOO FAR BACKWARDS

In an effort to purge the evils from high school athletics, college conferences and the California Interscholastic Federation seem to have bent over backwards a little too far in their piety.

Witness two recent cases in Daly City alone. First, a former Jefferson star was ousted from a college basketball squad because he participated in an outside amateur league.

This week the north county recreation basketball tournament was called off here, since Daly City's representative won't be able to field a team because of the righteousness of the CIF. This organization says no high school athlete may participate in outside sports while he is currently competing with a high school team. Half the players on Daly City's team will be taking part in track and baseball and therefore, under the super-sanctimonious statutes of the CIF, will lose their high school eligibility if they play in the recreation league.

It seems the two agencies, schools and recreation programs, though aimed at the same goal, are working at odds because of the stringency of the CIF and conference rules.

Citizens spend precious sums of money to develop recreation activities in their community. These activities are supposed to be wholesome and amateur (another word for wholesome).

These same citizens spend great chunks more of their dough to pay for high schools, and their accompanying sports programs.

Then the CIF steps in, says "naughty, naughty, some of that professionalism might rub off on the students if they play for Joe's Tire Shop three days before a respectable high school league contest."

Of course, the CIF inaugurated the tight measures to stop the widely-practiced recruiting of high school athletes for professional or college careers.

But, in doing so, they have virtually placed a noose around youngsters participating in outside recreation programs.

We think the CIF should unbend a little, and do away with this ridiculous state of affairs.

Recreation Workers Lauded By Director

By James Mason
Recreation Director

One of the most important aspects of a recreation program is the type of personnel who direct the activities that are offered. Since my appointment as recreation director in Daly City I have never ceased to marvel at the sincerity and drive of many of the playground directors and center directors have displayed in carrying out their duties.

Mr. Edward Mosconi who is the supervisor of playgrounds and general chairman of our program for Elementary School Children has done more than his share to provide wholesome activities for our children. In addition to these duties Mr. Mosconi has handled publicity for the various papers in relation to recreation in Daly City. The test of a job well done is best exemplified by the devotion and respect that the children of Daly City have for Ed. Ed has an outstanding quality of thinking in terms of what the children really desire in recreational activities. He has carried on children's programs in football, basketball and baseball that are a credit second to none in San Mateo county. It is not an uncommon experience for me to have recreation visitors from all over the state drop in and marvel at the well organized and directed programs in existence for this age group.

To elaborate further on personnel I would like to cite a few of the achievements of Mr. Richard Milkovich who has acted as a supervisor of night activities at the center. In the first few months of my duties in Daly City it was my dream to see a Teen Age Club develop and make use of the wonderful Community Center. This dream could not evolve without the proper charge. My first experience with Mr. Milkovich was in relation to a playground I placed him on in Daly City. My main interest in observing Mr. Milkovich was to analyze his approach to children and their acceptance of him as a director. After much deliberation it was my opinion that this was the man to take charge of the Teen Age Club. On June 1, 1953, the Teen Age Club began to function as an active organization. Since that time the high school children of Daly City have enjoyed the fruits of a combination of effort of their own and the Recreation Department with an excellent advisory chairman in charge.

Supplementing these activities he has assumed the responsibility of the Adult and Teen Age Basketball League at the Community Center. The Teen Age League was developed as an area where high school students could further express themselves on the basketball court. This league we termed a farm league in that many players who never played competitively at the high school had an opportunity to play. There are two such leagues in existence in San Mateo county, one in Redwood City and the other in Daly City. It is the ultimate aim of the Daly City and Redwood City Recreation Departments to extend this league to all cities in San Mateo County so that a well knit athletic league will evolve. The Adult Basketball League provides an area for grownups to express themselves in an active and passive way in their leisure time. The success of both of these leagues can be attributed to a well thought out plan and direction by the man in charge.

Next week we will discuss two more of our personnel and their work in the Recreation Department. We will continue this series of articles until we have covered all the Recreation personnel.

WILSON SAYS WILL USE EXPERIENCE TO PROTECT CITY

"Many problems confront each of us in this growing community. Most of these problems hit where it hurts most—our pocketbooks! My object in running for Daly City council is to use my experience as a qualified Real Estate appraiser, my knowledge in the construction field and as a father and home owner to protect our community from 'Quick Sale' depredations—either in Real Estate or 'City Planning,'" Del Wilson said this week.

"My basic feelings in this campaign are compounded of neither 'campaign promises' to you, the voters—or to myself—in the hopes of future and personal gain. As an independent candidate (in more ways than one) my political future must uphold the words 'help me—to help yourselves.'" Wilson continued.

De Bernardi Makes Analysis Of City Progress Platform

"Let us analyze the so-called 'Progressive Government' the incumbent candidates are trying to sell to the people of Daly City, and give credit where credit is due," Candidate Michael De Bernardi said this week.

"In my opinion the added fire and police protection, the increased water services and increased street services come right along with the growth of a city. Population has been steadily moving down the Peninsula since the end of World War II. I don't believe anyone can take credit for these things, as they are essentials that must be met with expansion. So let's just count those things not brought about by the increase in population," De Bernardi said.

VICKERS SAYS NO REASON FOR SMUGNESS

Candidate Sanford G. Vickers said today that Daly City has come a long ways in point of progress during the past two decades. "However," he continued, "That's no reason to be smug about present conditions."

Elaborating on his platform from last week, Vickers said the city needs a thorough clean-up. "Nobody seems to be interested in cleaning up our back-yard menaces, unsightly streets and civic eyesores."

"Sure, new buildings and facilities are all-important. But how about maintaining what we already have," Vickers continued by saying, "The general appearance and condition of Daly City could be improved 100 per cent."

"I intend to work for progress, for I wouldn't be running for office. But I do think a council should study all problems, not devote all their time to a few pet projects."

Kennedy Says New Fire Equipment Meets City's Needs

James H. Kennedy, incumbent candidate for Councilman in Daly City, declared today that the two new pieces of fire equipment purchased by the City Council, will provide first class fire protection for Daly City property owners for years to come. These are a new thousand gallon pumper engine and a seagrave aerial ladder engine.

"While we have good fire protection today," Kennedy said, "the new equipment and addition of more men to the department should serve to meet our expanding needs. It's entirely possible that these fire improvements will result in even a lower fire insurance rate for the city; a saving to our citizens."

Kennedy, who is completing his first term on the City Council, said he hopes to continue his fight for continuing improvements if successful in his second bid for a Council seat.

CITY SHOULD BE PROUD OF REC PROGRAM -- GREEN

Paul Green, incumbent Councilman and former Mayor, declared today that Daly City should be very proud of its recreation program and said that recreation facilities in Daly City, with the Community Center building, parks, etc., are much superior to those in other cities of comparative size on the peninsula.

"We have had groups from other cities throughout the state visit our facilities, and all have been amazed at what we've accomplished in the last four years," Green said. "We now have to complete two more parks and a smaller Community center to make our goal complete."

"Instead of talking about juvenile delinquency," Green stated, "we have tried to prevent it, by providing adequate facilities for our youngsters. At look at the record will prove that we have been successful."

Gaggero Points To Growth Of City Since War Years

Mayor A. J. Gaggero, with a record of 12 years of experience on the city council, pointed to the fact that Daly City has grown from less than 10,000 during the war years to about 24,000 citizens today.

"This growth has brought with it problems of improvement and expansion, but I am happy to say that the City Council has been able to anticipate problems and Daly City has enjoyed a post-war period of progress second to no city on the peninsula."

"We have a number of important projects under contract, and I feel it my duty to stay on the job until these improvements are completed," Gaggero said. "If re-elected to the City Council, I pledge a continued program of progress, based on the experience of my twelve years service."

Letters To The Editor

Dismissed Library Worker Says Her Side Not Heard By City Council Or Commission

March 11, 1954

To The Editor:

That there are two sides to everything is a time-honored fact. Yet neither the library commission nor the city council has had the "civility" to hear my side in dismissal proceedings as a probationary library employee. So I must resort to freedom of the press. Not to secure reinstatement, rather to protect other civil service employees who in the future might otherwise be steam-rolled out of jobs without privilege of protest!

The only courtesy offered was a "letter of resignation" which submission, for lack of formalized charges, I refused. Subsequent disqualification charges stated that letters from the undersigned (in August) to the Library Commission showed a lack of confidence in co-workers. Were the D. C. Council to read said letters written during vacation-absence of both the head librarian and second assistant librarian when presumably I was acting-librarian, they would find them conciliatory, suggestive only as to library improvement.

Because of insubordination, charges further said co-workers had threatened to resign were permanent status granted to the undersigned, a threat verified in an accompanying letter from the head librarian. Not wishing to malign incumbent staff members, I shall refrain from citing case histories to show why I could not yield on certain policies contrary to library welfare.

The third charge said child-terrorism tactics caused parents to refrain from using library facilities. Undue sternness resulted from foot-fatigue for lack of stools at the discharge desk and lack of suitable rest-quarters for enjoyment of two 15-minute rest periods daily, often forfeited.

Fatigue worsened on Saturdays when two staff members working the 12-9 p.m. weekday shifts, to fill a 40-hour week, arrived at 8 a.m. although the library does not open until 10. Earlier protesting the 40-hour week, I reminded the library commission that in August 1953 the D. C. city council sanctioned a 37 1/2-hour-week for other municipal workers. Insistence upon comparable rights was, according to the commission, a violation of their prerogatives as "dictators."

Until dealing with the library commission, I had believed dictators were something for Franco, Hitler and Mussolini. At a joint meeting with the library commission, however, staff members were told the library commission was empowered "to dictate to the library staff." Dictate, they have! At first, these dictators believed they could operate the library by remote control—that is, without allowing the head librarian to attend monthly meetings. They later allowed her a 20-minute courtesy appearance and subsequently, when state legislation opened all municipal meetings, permitted her full attendance.

This dictatorial attitude has handicapped both staff members and library users, specifically in grant of five-day-week schedules for a six-day-week institution. Any efficiency expert would have adjusted schedules according to peak traffic hours and days. Library patronage is heaviest on Mondays and Tuesdays, lets up slightly on Wednesdays, lessens on Thursdays, is lightest on Fridays, picks up slightly on Saturdays. To lighten work loads and to give maximum user-service, days off logically should have been Thursday, Friday and Saturday; the commission granted Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. Staff members already attempting to secure an 8-hour-day ending at 5:30 p.m. for the head librarian, failed to prove that most Daly City library users dine between 5:30 and 7 p.m. To gratify dictatorial whim, she works through 6:30 despite traffic being almost nil during the dinner hour.

I'm sure were Daly City library users to put out $2500 for a 1954 automobile, they would never settle for an oat-consuming horse-and-buggy vehicle. I believe this community wants the best possible library service. I also believe it wants library conditions so improved that future candidacy-examinations will attract a graduate librarian, a responsible person who will maintain equal library responsibilities and privileges for one and all.

A DISMISSED ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN

Narcotics Cause Of Crime Upswing, DA Candidate Says

Recent headlines bearing grim evidence that crime as the direct result of the illegal use of narcotics is on the upswing in San Mateo county, were cited by Roy W. Seagraves, Peninsula attorney and candidate for the office of San Mateo county's District Attorney.

In a recent address before members of the Burlingame Democratic Club, meeting at the Recreation Center in Burlingame.

"It is apparent—and becoming more tragically so—that the peril of the narcotics traffic in this county must be met by more rigorous law enforcement to effect the curtailment of the availability of narcotics, while at the same time the potential users of the dread drugs must be reached through the field of education. In this way only, can the potential market be eliminated," Seagraves pointed out.

Seagraves emphasized that a full and frank study of the manufacture, traffic in, the use and effect of narcotics as a part of the educational system at a high school, would be a powerful blow against the deadly menace.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

It's a little late to mention it, but if you hurry you still have time to dash down to the Curran and pick up two tickets to see one of the most vital personalities on the dance stage today—Jose Greco. Not that he is the whole show, as he is not afraid to surround himself with artists of soloist stature, but when he is one the stage it is difficult to notice anyone else. In fact, with his Beau Brummel elegance and superb style it's downright impossible.

It's been many a long day since we've greeted Ravel's "Bolero" with anything but a low moan, but we unhesitatingly recommend even this rather shop-worn place of music as long as we can watch this company dance it.

It seems almost criminal to mention any of the other dancers without naming all, but that would require itemizing all the selections and removing something of the element of surprise for you. However, we particularly enjoyed "Jota de Alciniz" with Nila Amparo and "Danza Castellana" with the two forementioned artists and Lola de Ronda. It is a whimsical tale of a flirtatious boy meeting two similarly minded girls and proved a fine contrast to some of the more intense dances preceding it.

We do not feel that we are too conversant with the more traditional Spanish dance, but when El Greco danced the role of the Miller from de Falla's "Three Corners Hat," we were happy to find ourselves back in the world of ballet again. This was original, choreographed by Massine, and for utterly no reason at all reminded us of "Capriccio Espagnol" likewise by Massine. "Capriccio" has unfortunately been absent from the repertoire of the larger companies for quite a number of years, and we'd like to see Jose Greco add part of it at least to the repertoire of his group.

Another thing we'd like him to do is have more Flamenco singing. Some of the evening's most enjoyable moments were given by Chinin de Triana, but he just didn't appear often enough.

The final scene, "Rincon Flamenco" reminded us of Sargent's painting, "El Jaleo." It has always been one of our favorites and to find it brought to life topped off one of the most entertaining evenings we've had in a long time.

R. C. MacARTHUR, TAX COLLECTOR, WILL RUN AGAIN

San Mateo County Tax Collector Ralph C. MacArthur announced today that he will seek reelection to his office at the June 8 primary.

MacArthur, a resident of Woodside, has served the county as tax collector since 1942. He was re-elected without opposition in 1946 and 1950.

"I feel that my experience in this important county office gives me an opportunity to continue to provide efficient and capable administration of the tax collector's duties," MacArthur declared in making his announcement.

MacArthur has been a resident of San Mateo County since 1909. Before moving to Woodside, he had lived in Burlingame and San Mateo.

During this period, MacArthur has maintained an active role in civic and veterans affairs. He is a member of Kiwanis, Elks, Masonic Lodge and the American Legion.

Safety News From Your Local Police

Wheel of Misfortune

Around and around the wheel of fortune goes and where it stops nobody knows. That saying was originated, undoubtedly, by someone reflecting on the chances of life. There's another wheel, however, that has a great deal to do with life itself, it's the steering wheel on your automobile. Drive carefully so that the steering wheel doesn't become your wheel of misfortune.

Drive For Your Life

You may not earn your living behind a wheel but you earn your life there. It's your duty to know exactly how to steer and brake, how to shift, how to take care of your vehicle and how to avoid trouble in traffic.

Two Tips On Brakes

Don't ride the brake pedal because, brake clearance being smaller than ever, the slightest pressure on the pedal may cause dragging.

Occasionally when brake linings have worn unevenly the car owner will attempt to "get by" with having only the most severely worn linings replaced. This may be justifiable when all the linings are new and one has been burnt through unequal adjustment. At no other time should it be done.

KQED TV TEST PATTERNS TO BE READY SOON

KQED test patterns will be ready for viewing on Channel 9 within two weeks, it was announced today by James Day, general manager of KQED, the "community" television station.

"The conversion of our transmitter from Channel 5 to Channel 9 is just about completed," Day said. "All the equipment has been ordered to prepare the way for a KQED test pattern. The next exciting step is to see how far our signal reaches from our transmitter, located at the top of the Hotel Mark Hopkins."

Plans for the KQED Charter Membership drive in this area are continuing under the leadership of the northern San Mateo county committee for Channel 9.

This week all local organizations are being contacted by letter in the drive for charter members in this area. In addition an open public meeting to inform local residents about Channel 9 will be held within the next couple of weeks. A film on educational television will be shown, and representatives from KQED will be on hand to answer any questions concerning the station, as well as to hand out literature. The time and place of the meeting will be announced in the next issue of this paper. People interested in learning more about the meeting may telephone the committee's general chairman, Mrs. Robert Buchanan at Plaza 5-4125.

The argument over who are the "better drivers, men or women is pretty much a waste of time. What is more important is how safe a driver are you? Discussion among drivers of each sex on the rules of traffic accident prevention would be more profitable. Whether you are a man driver or a woman driver, be a safe driver, urge the California State Automobile Association.

COMMUNITY SURVEY WEEK SCHEDULED BY JEFFERSON ELEMENTARY DISTRICT

March 22-26 has been set as "community survey" week by the Jefferson Elementary School district. The survey will consist of some 2000 carefully planned questionnaires which will be sent to representative parents selected at random to insure objectivity. The survey is designed to secure accurate information from parents about their impressions of the school program and facilities, as well as parental use and support of them. The information is to be used to improve educational effectiveness and opportunity in the Jefferson Elementary School district. The technique for gathering information was formulated after much experimentation financed by funds from the Kellogg Foundation.

Every parent in the smaller schools, 8th street, Thornton and Benjamin Franklin, will be given a questionnaire. The only exceptions are kindergarten and first grade. These grades will not be used because of the unfamiliarity parents may have with the school, because of the difficulty the children might have in explaining to parents, and because of the increased probability of questionnaire loss between home and school. In larger schools, Colma, Crocker, Garden Village, General Pershing, Jefferson, Westlake and Woodrow Wilson, a sample of 200 families in each school will be chosen. Every class above the first grade will be represented.

The number chosen from each class will depend upon school size. A sample of 200 respondents will be selected from a school of 600 enrollment by choosing one-third of each class in the school.

The school district does not want to know the names of the parents who fill out questionnaires. Studies have demonstrated that people who answer anonymously tend to be more frank. Therefore, no names will be used on the questionnaire forms. Parents may return the questionnaires in a sealed envelope with their child. The envelope will be opened in the Board of Education office. In order to be sure that this information accurately represents the thinking of parents, every questionnaire should be completed and returned. To provide a basis for follow-ups, as names are chosen by chance from the class registers, they will be recorded one name to a card on 3 x 5 cards. Each teacher is given the cards for her pupils. Pupils are then called by name from the 3 x 5 cards and given questionnaires. As questionnaires are returned, pupils are given the 3 x 5 card. Thus the identity of those who return questionnaires can be protected. Cards which remain each day can be used as a basis of a follow-up to get more complete returns. Using this system, the staff expects to get close to 100% returns within 3 or 4 days.

S.M. Demos To Open Permanent Office

The first permanent headquarters of the San Mateo County Democratic organization will open Monday, March 15, at 128 North B street, San Mateo, according to a joint announcement by Frank V. Rose, San Mateo, County Central Committee chairman, and Leonard Cornell, Menlo Park, chairman of the headquarters board for the County Democratic Council.

The two leaders stated that the headquarters has been possible by pledges of monthly contributions from the 17 local Democratic clubs and a number of individuals throughout the county. The woman's club, headed by Mrs. Oliver Ryder, Menlo Park, has had charge of procuring furniture and office equipment. A crew of young Democrats from the Associated Students Democratic club worked during the week at the job of repainting the office. Roy W. Seagraves, Burlingame attorney and former chairman of the precinct organization, built and installed the shelving for the mailing room.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Lent is well on its way and one and all are looking forward to Easter Sunday. This has been a week of news enough for two papers so the best thing to do is to get on with it.

The first news came through the mail and is a most unhappy one. Sympathies of the neighbors are extended this week to MRS. FLORINE JESPERSEN who for many years lived in our town on the death of her husband, CAMILUS P. JESPERSEN. He passed away in San Francisco on Feb. 24 of pneumonia at the age of 55 years. Jeff, as he was known to his many friends, was a kindly, considerate man and will be remembered by all those who many years ago lived in the Los Olivos area. Besides his wife he left three children, Mrs. Judith Christopher of Daly City, William P. Jespersen of Daly City and Florine Jespersen of San Francisco. He is also survived by a brother and sister who reside in San Francisco. Private funeral services were held in San Francisco with inurnment at Olivet Memorial Park.

The LUCKY THIRTEEN CLUB, composed of a bunch of gals who at one time or another went to Jefferson High school together and are now either working or married or both, met at the home of MISS HEATHER BRIDGES of San Diego avenue last Wednesday night. Refreshments were served and of course gab is also a main part of these get-togethers. From childhood friendships come many years of lasting pleasure.

Items of Interest.

That day of days so dear to the hearts of not only the Irish but all the rest of the neighbors is coming next week and as usual we are going to have the opportunity of having a grand time in honor of the good saint. There will be a dinner and entertainment given in OLPH Hall on Saturday, March 13, to which everyone is invited. This is a "family affair." Dinner will be served from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. and there will be of course a grand entertainment. The tickets sell for $1.25 for adults and 60 cents for the children. These prices include both the dinner and the entertainment. Everyone who has ever gone to one of these affairs will remember the good time that was had by one and all so let's meet "your neighbors and mine" at the Parish Hall Saturday night.

The long, long journey is over! The wanderers have returned home! FOOFIE and BUD, those two gay souls whom we have followed on their journeys for almost a year finally gave up and came home. On their last lap they went through the Grand Canyon which was as beautiful as it is supposed to be and then down into Mexico where they visited many places of interest. They visited Las Vegas for three days and also took in Del Mar for a visit with a brother-in-law, then to Redwood City, San Carlos and finally landed at the home of MRS. CLARA POKET weary, saddle sore, tired but happy. They both plan on going back to work and saving up enough money to do it again. The next time they plan to make a trip to the Islands or right down thru Mexico, Central America and points south. Welcome home, kids, it's nice to have you back.

Have you ever heard of the City of Hope hospital? It is a free non-sectarian national medical center for healing and research for leukemia, cancer, Hodgskins disease, TB, and heart disease. Anyone interested in joining the City of Hope auxiliary of Daly City can get any and all information by calling MRS. LYNN BOSKEY at PL 5-0902 or at PL 6-1856 after six in the evening.

Birthday greetings are sent this week to MRS. MARY ROMERO of Willits St. who celebrated her birthday on March 2. All her family and friends gathered to wish her many happy returns of the day. That goes for the rest of the neighbors too, Mary.

Another of the boys of our town is getting his chance in organized baseball. Joe Lewkowicz, son of the well known Joe and Dolly Lewkowicz, leaves March 20th for Anaheim, California, for a tryout with the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club. All good luck and best wishes for your future are wished for you, Joe, from all of us.

Sadness came to the home of MRS. EILEEN DE BANO last week. Her cousin, RAYMOND PERA, who was only 23, was killed in a motorcycle accident at San Jose and Raymond streets last week. All the sympathies of the neighbors are extended to her and her family at this time.

Service men

On a cold grey day last week the U. S. Transport General Miggs sailed through the Golden Gate bound for Japan with its usual passenger list of boys for service overseas. Aboard was A/2c HAROLD "SKIP" AMES of the U. S. Air Forces. I was very lucky this time as Skip not only had time to call before he left but he came out to see me last Monday night. It was so good to see this fine young man as it had been 15 months since I had last seen him and it will be at least 18 months before he gets back again.

PFC. BILL "Bumpsie" BRANDT of the U. S. Marine Corps was heard from this week. Bumpsie is still flying around and this trip took him to Hawaii for 13 days and then to Japan for six days. While in Japan he looked up an old friend of his who joined the Marines the same day, PFC. AL FLYNN. Al is stationed at a supply base in Japan and has joined a bunch of fellows who are letting their hair grow real long. According to Bumpsie, he never saw so much hair on anyone before. The reunion of these two home town boys who hadn't seen each other for many months was really a good one and Bumpsie is going to try and do it again as Al is only three hundred miles from the air base where Bumpsie is stationed.

stationed.

Another of the boys who has made Daly City a home away from home came home on Thursday of last week. PFC. STANLEY NAPAIRALA of the U. S. Marines is back from 13 months as a mortar gunner with the 3rd battalion—5th Marine Division, in Korea. He is a most happy boy as his enlistment is up and after visiting with friends he will return to his home town of Buffalo, New York.

MR. and MRS. HARRISON of Hillside boulevard are happy people this week. They welcomed home their son, Jim, after four months service with the U. S. Navy. The best part of the homecoming was the fact that he has received his discharge and is now rated civilian first class again.

PFC. ANTHONY MURPHY of the U. S. Marines is another of the fellows who has received that coveted piece of paper that returns him to the life of a civilian. While in the service Tony was an MP with the DMG unit. These boys were among those who were on guard in the de-militarized zone during the exchange of the POW's in Korea. Ten months of Tony's overseas duty were spent in Korea and he is also another of the boys who is just as much at home in our town as he is in his own home town of New York. He is leaving for there soon with all the best wishes from all the neighbors who knew him when he used to visit here.

News and Views

Another well known gal had a birthday last week. Edie James who has been a favorite among the many waitresses to serve us celebrated hers by getting waited on. Best wishes from all the neighbors, Edie, and we'll be seeing you. Good news in the Lister household! MRS. IRENE LISTER of Mission street who has been in St. Joseph's hospital for an operation is now well and able to be home. She came home last week and it won't be long before she is able to be up and back among all her friends again.

Here's news of a new baby that really should have put an end to all bets. MR. and MRS. DEL FEHL of Willits street are the oh, so proud parents of a baby boy. The young man checked in at 7 lbs., 10 ozs. Poor Del will really be on a diet in order to pay off all the bets that he made on the fact that the baby would be another girl. Del doesn't feel too bad as his other two children are girls and he was only betting against hope anyway. Congratulations to one and all from the neighbors.

Another of the neighbors has had a bout with a nasty appendix. MRS. CAROL BIGNOTTI of the Tanforan Florist is really an amazon for sure. She was walking around for three days with one that had started to rupture. Finally she just had to give in and admit that she didn't feel her best. She has now parted with it and admits that she feels very much better for the parting. Birthdays—birthdays—birthdays! March really seems to be the month for them. MRS. MADELINE FORD of Parkview avenue was the one neighbor who did it differently. She celebrated her wedding anniversary with the congratulations of all her family and many friends. When one has lived in our town as long as Madeline has, one really has made lots of friends and each and every one of them wish her all the best in the future and many more years of happiness.

Another place of interest to go this week is the "Youth Art Contest" sponsored by the Daly City-Colma Lions. Many of the youngsters have entered their best efforts and they can be viewed at the Daly City War Memorial Building on Mar. 12, 13 and 14. That gives us three days to view this exhibit from the one held last year. It is well worth going to. There is so much heard about the children who have nothing to do and spend their time in activities not up to snuff that it is really good to find an event like this to go to.

One of the most popular coaches at Jefferson High this week is MR. TONY GIAMMONA. Due to his vigilance last week RONNIE AGELOTT will live to grow up and live his life as was intended. His life was saved by the quick actions and efforts of the coaching staff during a gym period in which swimming was the order of the day. Ronnie just got out a little further than he should and was in very serious condition when Mr. Giammona, clothes and all, went in the pool after him. While Coach Mike Orlich administered artificial respiration, Coach Joe McGrath summoned the ambulance. On behalf of all the moth-

Mrs. John D. Mitchell, publicity chairman for the James L. Snell PTA, thanked the following people for their help in distributing Fashion Tea posters:

The teachers explained how their various fields of teaching contributed not only directly to his education, but indirectly to his growth and development.

Other faculty members assisting Beerbower and Murray include Mrs. Marge Calvin of Daly City's pack 62, Jim Hamilton of Pack 63's committee, and district executive Maurice Powers, representing the San Francisco Council. EDUCATION TV DEVELOPING RAPIDLY ACROSS COUNTRY, SPEAKER TELLS PTA

Educational television stations are rapidly being developed throughout the country, according to Harrison T. McClung, western representative of the National Citizens Committee for Educational Television. McClung, speaking at the recent meeting of the Westlake PTA, stated that three educational stations are already operating, a fourth ready to start and many well along in plans and development. The bay area station, KQED, plans to start with one hour a day of television for children, from 5 to 6 p.m., and two hours for adults, from 7 to 9 p.m. The children's programs will include a junior workshop of different age group projects, cartoon history, story time, kitchen orchestra, animal life and films such as child life in other lands. Stations will start with a few hours a day due to the time involved in working up material. As time progresses, additional programs will be available from those developed by other educational stations in the country.

Honor Presidents, Charter Members At Eagles Auxiliary

Tuesday was old-home week for the Eagles Auxiliary of Daly City Tuesday when past presidents and charter members were honored.

Presented to the altar were past presidents Dorothy Beaulieu "Johnson," Dolly Lewkowicz, Dolores Warren and Alberta Diebel. Madam President Jean Blankenhorn presented each a white sweet pea corsage and gift.

Mrs. Beaulieu, being first president of the local organization, was given a life membership.

Presiding President Mrs. Warren received her pin and certificate of office and a bouquet of white roses with a bow of blue, the Auxiliary's colors.

Dora Black and Lorene Gardner were the only two past presidents unable to attend.

Five new candidates were initiated into the group. They were: Terry Ferguson, Joan Serini, Theresa Cerna and Alice Hersebell.

Lauren Curry was re-initiated. Tables were decorated by Edrie Summers. Favors on hand were nut cups in rocking chair shapes. Lynn Boskey and her group served the members with spaghetti, green salad, french rolls, cake and coffee.

Members reported an enjoyable time had by all present.

Wilson, Fran and Frank Dethiefson, Maureen and Del Guymon, Vivian and Bob Leech, Vic and Mabs Guz and Ruth and Trevor Jones.

The LePine family on Washington street have lost a long treasured pet. Their green parakeet "flew the coop" this past Tuesday.

Thirty-eight children and adults spent the week-end at the newly acquired Girl Scouts camp at Sonoma. The group went on 30 miles to Dodge Ridge to play in the snow. It was a great experience for all but mainly to those who had never seen snow. Besides doing their own cooking and dish washing they also panned gold. The drivers for the group were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benedict, leader, Mr. and Mrs. Ed George, assistant leader, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kruger, assistant leader, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Theimen, Mrs. Lee Pitts and Mr. George Irvine, who also was the "First Aider." Mr. Irvine conducted church services outdoors. This camp was purchased by the sale of cookies. This year's cookie sale starts March 27.

FOLK AND SQUARE DANCES HELD EACH WEDNESDAY NIGHT

All grades of dancers in this area have been invited to attend folk and square dancing activities each Wednesday night at the Westlake school.

Thanks to the constant care they take, Studebaker means, not only a great car, but a quality way of building.

See what you gain!

Come in and examine the superb construction of the new 1954 Studebaker. See how solid and sound it is throughout. It's more than the best built car in America. Its far-advanced style is like money in the bank for you as insurance of high resale value.

It marked the second straight year that Delbon has been named to first string on the mythical squad.

Bowing out of prep competition this June, Delbon will take with him the all-time Jefferson High school scoring record. He rang up 1084 points in 72 games during the past three years for an average of 15.1 per game.

During the past season he far out-distanced any of the league shooters, netting 233 points in regular season contests.

Including practice games, he had 416 points this year.

SHARP PARK FINISHES UNDEFEATED TO COP NORTH COUNTY CAGE TITLE

In the final "B" game of the season Colma won its first game by defeating Brisbane, 19 to 14. Colma's Anthony Mayer won the game with an amazing 16-point effort. Bob With and Bob Strassburger scored 6 and 5, respectively, for Brisbane.

In the "A" league both Colma and OLPH gave stubborn resistance to Brisbane and Sharp Park but it was not enough as Brisbane defeated Colma, 33 to 20, and Sharp Park dropped OLPH, 30 to 21.

Displaying the kind of basketball that makes champions, undefeated Sharp Park defeated strong Daly City Saturday and walked off with the Northern County "B" League Title.

Led by Greg Kropak's 8 points the Sharp Parkers, trailing 6 to 7 at the half, outscored Daly City in the third quarter, 10 to 2, and pulled away in the fourth quarter to win easily, 23 to 12. Marvin Wise and Ron Crossen played a sparkling game for Sharp Park. Don Burley, Ron Kalinin and Lyn Attaberry did a good job for Daly City but were unable to stop Sharp Park.

Westlake put on another scoring spree while dropping OLPH, 47 to 16. Steve Opperman of Westlake took the league scoring title with a 20 point effort. Teammate Ross Holmgren scored 17 points and took second place in the scoring race. Little Joe Millett scored 11 points for OLPH but his effort was not enough against the high scoring Westlakers. The win made the Westlakers runner-up in the north county race and gave them undisputed claim on the city title, with a 4-1 mark.

Elmo Smith, President of the Peninsula Cerebral Palsy organization, declared, "We wish to thank Mr. Klieck and the Optimists for this most generous invitation."

Hart, Silvestri Lose In S.F. Golf Tourney

Cy Pennel, Palo Alto gas station proprietor, halted any hopes of a Daly City man taking the San Francisco golf championship last weekend by defeating both Bob Silvestri and Roy Hart in separate matches.

Silvestri, former state champion, was first to taste Pennel's firing, bowing to the Stanford Club champ's three under par golf on the 19th hole Saturday.

Pennel had to go three extra holes on Sunday to down Hart. He scored on a twelve foot putt, while Hart missed an 18-inch shot to lose the hole and his chances in the tourney.

On Saturday Hart turned back Frank Forst on the nineteenth hole.

Silvestri is slated to meet Phil Gordon at Harding on Monday for medalist honors.

SARTO RALLIES TO WHIP RADIO CLUB, 10 to 5

Spotting the Radio Club five runs in the first inning, Sarto A.C. came from behind in the second frame to score six runs and tallied four again in the sixth to win, 10 to 5.

John Olese led off the second with a home run to the right field bank. Costa then hit a triple and five singles resulted in six runs.

Ontello, just back from Germany, pitched the first three innings for Sarto and performed capably, considering he had not played ball for more than a year. Coburn chucked for six innings, allowing four hits, striking out eight and walking one.

Good defensive play by the infield, resulting in four double plays, cut off anything that looked like a rally.

Sarto goes against Marchbanks this Sunday at 2 p.m. against 12-Mile-House.

WORKING FOR THE R.R.

High strength low alloy steels containing nickel along with other alloying elements are minimizing labor and expense in railroad applications. Besides their corrosion-resisting properties, these steels combine qualities such as ability to withstand shocks, battering, piercing and abrasion.

Jeff High Bouts At Gym Today

A promising card will greet ringsiders today at the annual Block J boxing matches to be held in the Jefferson High school gym, beginning at 2:15 p.m.

Topping the presentations will be the 170-pound go between Harry Sampson and Larry Conway. Sampson snared the 160-pound title last year from Conway in a split decision.

In the 135-pound class Senior Darrell Chapman, a three-time crown winner who started off as a freshman winning the 118, then held the 120-pound division two years running, will be pitted against Ralph Clarlanti, a tough and game sophomore. Clarlanti eliminated Milo Williams, who fought Chapman last year for the 126 crown.

Another top bout will be in the 126-pound class, with Bob Morris meeting Byron Garntt. Morris TKO'd his opponent in the elimination matches and showed a lot of ability in doing it. Morris is a senior, while Garntt, a junior, is a rough campaigner.

In the 112-pound division, Bill Pushman, defending champ in that class, faces Bob Phillips, who has looked good in preliminary work.

Both are juniors. Sophomore Bruce Lovagziano and Freshman Richard Clarlanti pair off in the 118-pound bout. The 145-pound battle will find Dick Hosking meeting Bob Wilhoite. Hosking fought last year, getting eliminated by George Rancatore, who copped the 135-pound title that year.

Amil Toscanelli and Carl Miller throw leather in the 160-pound class.

There is no heavyweight bout scheduled.

Proceeds of the matches will go to fund awards for the Block J society.

Admission is 25 cents.
